

CALL FOR VENDORS –HISTORIC CRAFTERS & EXHIBITORS FAIR

7th RALLY FOR NORLANDS: CIVIL WAR LIVING HISTORY EVENT - Saturday & Sunday, June 22-23, 2019

Join Us For Living History Fun!

The Washburn-Norlands Living History Center (Norlands) in Livermore, Maine, seeks experienced artisans, crafters, and reenactors to demonstrate and/or sell original craft during its Historic Crafters & Exhibitors Fair. The Fair is open to artisans of today who handcraft items using 19th-century (or earlier time period) traditional materials or methods, such as fiber arts, pottery, and woodworking. Civil War Sutlers who sell period wares and authors of relevant books are also welcome. If you think your work fits the criteria and time period, please contact us – we are flexible. Historical societies and museums are also welcome to exhibit and/or demonstrate antiques, collections, or share educational materials. Norlands is not seeking food vendors at this time. The Fair is a significant portion of Rally for Norlands: Civil War Living History Weekend to be held on June 22-23, 2019.

Showcase your craft at Maine’s largest Civil War Reenactment! This family-friendly event features a wide variety of living history activities. Over 150 Confederate, Union, and civilian reenactors are expected along with 1000 visitors from greater New England. Register early to be included in all promotional opportunities and to save on the application fee. Members of Norlands enjoy an additional 20% discount on the application fees. Visit our website – www.norlands.org/membership.html - for more information on the benefits of membership. All proceeds, including vendor application fees, directly benefit the Norlands – a 501(c)3 non-for-profit organization.
